

Stories from the Gulag

Friday, November 25, 2011 at 7:00 pm

It would seem that the history of the Soviet Union is a thing of the past, perhaps irrelevant after its demise in 1991. Yet, there are stories from that past that are not only cautionary tales, but testimony to immense and immeasurable human tragedy that has largely not received the public attention it deserves.

L. B. Shulakewych has compiled an overview of material from various historical publications that documents the abuses of the Soviet regime. The event will feature the BBC documentary Stolen Years followed by readings and recollections from various sources, such as Aleksander Sozhenitsyn, Robert Conquest, Donald Rayford, Martin Amis, the New York Times, Chicago Tribune and Winnipeg Free Press, among others.
