

19TH Annual J.B. Rudnyckyj Distinguished Lecture

Dr. Serhy Yekelchyk

Ukrainian Culture Under Stalin

Professor of History (University of Victoria, B.C.) Serhy Yekelchyk, will be this year's 19th annual J.B. Rudnyckyj Lecturer at the University of Manitoba.

Dr. Yekelchyk is a scholar of Stalinist culture and political life, in particular in the former Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic. He has also written about Soviet nationalities policy and about Ukrainian national identity from the late nineteenth century to the present. Amongst his works are: Ukraine: Birth of a Modern Nation (2007); Europe's last frontier? : Belarus, Moldova, and Ukraine between Russia and the European Union (Co-edited, 2008); and Stalin's Empire of Memory: Russian-Ukrainian Relations in the Soviet Historical Imagination (2004)

Date & Time of Lecture: Friday, February 10, 2012, at 3:00 pm

Admission: Free, with reception to follow.

Location: Archives & Special Collections, 330 Elizabeth Dafoe Library, Fort Garry Campus, University of Manitoba.

Sponsored by: The University of Manitoba Archives & Special Collections; the Slavic Collection, Elizabeth Dafoe Library - University of Manitoba; and The Department of German & Slavic Studies, University of Manitoba.

For further information, please contact the U of M Archives & Special Collections @ 474-9986.