

Thank you for your request, but we will respectfully decline your offer.

You can be assured that we will continue to support Canada's role in providing support and protection for the people of Ukraine while supporting democratic initiatives.

Canada's Conservatives have been unwavering in this regard and so I am surprised you as asking where we stand on this issue.

We look forward to your support.

Kind regards,

Len Webber
Conservative Candidate